Our Honoree

PAUL CONEFRY

Paul Conefry has been a volunteer and member of our Board of Directors since 2004. He has generously donated his time to chair our Annual Golf Outing Committee every year from 2007 to 2018. He says that being on the Board of Directors allows him the opportunity to make an immediate impact in changing the lives of individuals the agency serves. His work as Golf Outing Chairman these past 12 years shows his heartfelt interest and understanding of our agency's important work and fundraising needs. Paul remains an active member of the Board and golf committee and is a continuous advocate for Mercy Haven's mission. A more supportive and truer friend to the agency you cannot find. Thank you, Paul, for your selfless commitment towards creating safe and supportive housing that changes lives.
